

Invite One to Come and See | John 1:35-46

1. In John 1:35–46, how do John the Baptist and Andrew each point someone towards Jesus? What can we learn from their different approaches?
2. Kay described John as a “signpost” and Andrew as a “guide”. Which picture best describes the way you naturally share your faith, and why?
3. Andrew’s first response after meeting Jesus was to find his brother Simon. How easy/hard do you find it to witness to people in our own family or close circle? Share struggles, encouragements and advice in this area.
4. Jesus says, “Come and you will see” (John 1:39), and Philip later says, “Come and see” (John 1:46). Why can a simple invitation be such a powerful form of witness?
5. Read 1 Peter 3:15. How can we speak about the hope we have with both confidence and “gentleness and respect”?
6. What fears or barriers can make witnessing difficult? How does knowing that changing hearts is God’s responsibility encourage us?
7. How would you summarize what Jesus has done in your life in 60 seconds or less.
8. Who is one person in your sphere of life whom you could pray for and invite to “come and see” Jesus? What practical next step could you take this week?

What did you discover about God in this passage?
What did you discover about people in this passage?
How will you commit to obey this passage this week?
With whom will you share what you have learned?
